Donald Malter appointed as CFO of TLA

TLA Worldwide plc (AIM: TLA), the athlete representation and sports marketing business, today announces that Donald Malter (age 48), has become CFO of the Company and joins its board with immediate effect.

Donald was previously CFO (North America) for BMG Chrysalis since 2010, a joint venture between private equity firm, KKR and European media conglomerate, Bertelsmann. Prior to this he was CFO (North America) for Dimensional Music Publishing, LLC, a private equity backed music publishing house for 5 years. A financial veteran of the media and entertainment industry since 1991, Donald brings his private equity, operations and financial management skills to TLA.

Donald succeeds current CFO Gareth Jones, who is leaving the Company on or around 1 October to pursue personal interests outside of finance.

TLA CEO Mike Principe commented, "We wish Gareth all the very best for the future and thank him for his significant contributions to TLA, I am delighted that Donald has joined us as CFO to replace Gareth. His background in music, which tracks closely to sports, as well as his private equity experience and his long and successful track record as a CFO will be invaluable as we continue to progress as a Company "

Donald Malter commented, "I'm excited to step into this role, TLA has hit a very exciting stage in their corporate lifecycle and is well positioned for increasing success on a global scale. I look forward to working closely with the TLA team and share their energy in driving shareholder value"

Donald Malter has been a director in the following companies during the five year period immediately preceding his appointment to the board of TLA Worldwide.

Stage Three Music (Categories) Ltd
Ryko Music Holdings Ltd
Ryko Music Ltd
Evergreen Copyrights Acquisitions London Ltd
Warlock Music Ltd
Stage Three Music Publishing Ltd

As at the date of his appointment as a director of the Company, Mr Malter held no shares in TLA.

There are no additional disclosures to be made in accordance with paragraph (g) of Schedule 2 of the AIM Rules for Donald Malter.
